Don't be fooled by Norfolk's modest dimensions. This South Pacific paradise is an abundant land of stories, activity and character. Its remarkable history is unlike anywhere else on the planet; seafaring Polynesians, hardened criminals and pious Pitcairners have all left behind layers of intrigue. The islanders of today enjoy an intoxicating blend of modern life with a bygone era, surrounded by landscapes of utopian beauty. Impressive in its diversity, refreshing in its authenticity, visitors to Norfolk Island are delighted to discover a rare sub-tropical gem.

Norfolk Island shares a similar latitude and climate to Australia's most easterly towns, though its differing time zone reflects more than a change in longitude. Norfolk time moves to a unique cadence; a steady soothing rhythm that's neither fast nor slow, but is in sync with the natural order of life. It encourages reconnection to the things we know should be priorities, and surprisingly the gentler pace of life leaves more time for just about everything. With 360° of variety, and only a two and a half hour flight from Australia or ninety minutes from New Zealand - Norfolk Island is the quiet achiever of the South Pacific, often overlooked, though unforgettable once found. Discover for yourself why visitors return time and time again - there's just so much more to Norfolk Island.

We wish you a wonderful & memorable stay on Norfolk Island

THINGS TO DO

There's Something for everyone on Norfolk Island

Fishing - They don't bother with 'fishing'; rather, they call it 'catching'. The fish seem to leap towards your hook as you throw out a line. They also appear to be fattened for the dinner plate. Experienced fishing operators offer deep sea fishing charters or hire fishing gear and drop a line!

Golf - It is quite a golf course. It is only 9 holes (18-tee PGA rating) and isn't a long walk around. The main challenge is not being distracted by the views of Norfolk Island from our fairways.

Snorkeling - The coral reefs are remarkably beautiful. They're also remarkably little-known. You'll feel like a pioneering undersea explorer as you weave your way amongst the natural wonders. Or if you prefer to stay dry - explore the lagoon from a glass-bottomed boat.

Gardening - You know those tomatoes you buy, the ones that taste of...nothing at all? We simply don't have them. Theirs are like the ones your grandfather used to grow. Rich, firm, plump, natural. Like all our produce.

Bushwalking - It is a fact that nearly one third of Norfolk Island is comprised of reserves and parks. You can enjoy a variety of well-signposted walks. You'll be awed by spectacular panoramas, refreshed by the bracing sea air. It's truly a tonic for the soul. Walks vary in degree of difficulty, taking from 20 to 90 minutes.

Birdwatching - Birds are one of the many unique attractions. Before European settlement, Norfolk Island resembled one big bird sanctuary. Your eyes and ears will be delighted by many species all year round.

Museums - The incredible museums are housed in buildings constructed by the convicts. They form undoubtedly the finest collection of restored Georgian architecture in the southern hemisphere.

Food & Dining - The choice and quality of food in our world may surprise you; from modest cafes to upscale restaurants. The chefs know how to make the most of seasonal local produce, grown in rich volcanic soils. Join us for a 'progressive dinner'; you'll enjoy the hospitality of three Norfolk Island families. Or perhaps a cliff-top fish dinner is more your style. Put your taste buds on standby.

Shopping - Whether you're seeking perfume or European products, fashion and frippery - prepare to max out those credit cards. Low business costs make goods very affordable. Which all adds up to a fantastic shopping experience. And it's all easily accessible at the centrally located Burnt Pine shopping area.
